Whether it's a modern pop of painted color on canvas or a grand ocean side sculpture garden, these are five striking exhibitions in Miami right now.

José Lerma's Guaynabichean Odyssey at David Castillo Gallery, 420 Lincoln Road, Miami Beach, FL

The Spanish-born, Puerto Rican-raised painter delivers a swath of eccentric large-scale works inspired by Spanish conquistador, Juan Ponce de León—only, if he were searching for the fountain of youth in modern day Florida. Lerma employs hybrid materials and non-traditional techniques to tackle issues of class, social status and the quest for eternal youth. It's bright and chaotic, but altogether thoughtful and refreshing.
