Black Artists: 30 Contemporary Art Makers Under 40 You Should Know

February 26, 2013

As Black History Month comes to a close, we've picked 30 young black artists who are contributing to the ongoing conversation of race and representation in contemporary art. Whether through sculpture, photography, video or performance, each artist illuminates the complexity of the self with a unique and bold vision.

From Kalup Linzy's soap opera shorts to Kehinde Wiley's traditional portraits updated with black models, the following young artists show there is no single way to address race in contemporary culture. Playful or meditative, sarcastic or somber, the following artists tackle the subject with a ferocious curiosity, passion and vulnerability.

Xaviera Simmons

Born in 1974

Simmons was born in and currently lives in New York. Her work layers photography, sound, sculpture, video and performance to explore and challenge our assumptions about time, place and narrative.
