David Castillo Adds Director

Independent curator Claudia Mattos will join Miami's David Castillo gallery as a director, where she will focus on expanding the gallery's video and performance programming. Since 2016, Mattos has been a consultant to the gallery and she has written texts to accompany some of its exhibitions, including "Shinique Smith: Dream Weaver" (2020), "Vaughn Spann: Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" (2019), and "Kalup Linzy: Tangled Up" (2018). In fall 2019 she was the curator-in-residence at the Shanghai Curators Lab and will be a researcher-in-residence at the National Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art in Korea in 2021. Previously, she has held curatorial positions at the Baltimore Museum of Art, the Institute of Contemporary Art, Miami, and Performa, New York, and headed the exhibitions program at Miami's Locust Projects gallery.
