

25 Shows to See Across the US as Museums Reopen, From Jacob Lawrence's Genius at the Met to an Epic Mexican Masterpiece in Dallas

As museums emerge from lockdown, here's what's on our must-see list.

Sarah Cascone & Caroline Goldstein, September 18, 2020

"Sanford Biggers: Codeswitch" at the Bronx Museum
Through January 24, 2021

Sanford Biggers, Khemetstry (2017).

This is first exhibition dedicated to the quilt-based works Sanford Biggers has been making for the past 20 years. Drawing on African American history, the artist created these mixed media paintings and sculptures using pre-1900 antique quilts.

The Bronx Museum is located at 1040 Grand Concourse, Bronx, New York; admission is free.