

W Artists Envision a New Kind of Political Poster

October 22, 2020 8:00 am

In the midst of a fraught election season, we asked 18 artists of color to reimagine the political poster. From a work by Kara Walker that says it all without words to Mark Bradford's wheat-pasted rhyming triplet, each image is a unique distillation of our current moment. When there's so much at stake, what do you stand for?
