

Art World

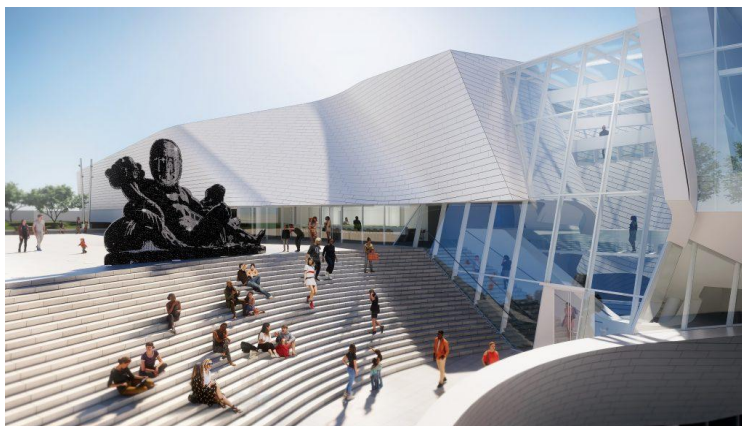

Art Industry News: Pussy Riot Will Play a Surprise Concert at Art Basel to Support Ukraine + Other Stories

Plus, the New Orleans Prospect Triennial names its 2023 artistic director, and a judge dismisses a lawsuit over a Black Lives Matter mural.

Artnet News, June 10, 2022

FOR ART'S SAKE

Sanford Biggers Sculpture Lands in Orange County – The Orange County Museum of Art announced plans to present a monumental sculpture by Sanford Biggers when it reopens on October 8 at its new home on the campus of Segerstrom Center for the Arts. The 24-foot-wide, 16-foot-tall sculpture, Of many waters... (2022), blends the archetype of a European reclining figure with a 19th-Century Baule double-face mask made from metal sequins. (Press release)

Rendering of Of many waters... (2022) by Sanford Biggers on the Sculpture Terrace of OCMA, opening to the public in October 2022. Credit: Morphosis